

Annapolis, Md., July 6th., 1909.

The Board of Public Works met at the State Treasurer's Office in the City of Annapolis, this Tuesday, July 6th. 1909 at 12 o'clock noon. Present, the Governor, Comptroller and State Treasurer.

Bids as follows were opened for the State Stationery, after the reading of the advertisement for the same:

Wm. J. C. Dulany Company	$3,496.15
Courch-Leeser Company	3,649.00
Meyer & Thalheimer	3,533.40

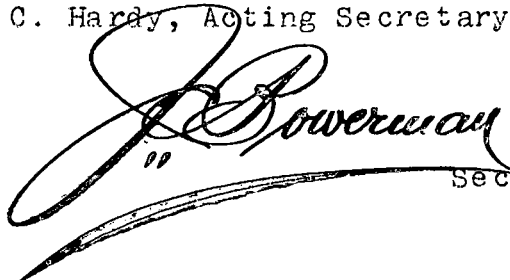

each bid being accompanied by the required bond of $20,000. After considering the above bids the Comptroller moved to accept the bid of the Wm. J. C. Dulany Company, it being the lowest bid, which motion was unanimously carried. Mr. Dulany was notified of the acceptance of his bid and his bond for $20,000 was approved by the Board and delivered to the State Librarian.

Mr. Dulany appeared before the Board and requested permission to give individual bond in connection with the stationery contract, which was granted by the Board, provided that the sureties on the same were not members of the Wm. J. C. Dulany Company. However, the Company filed the Surety Company's bond which accompanied the bid.

The Board took up with Commander Howard of the State Fishery Force, the matter of the boat for the use of the Shell Fish Commission, and after considering the matter, and upon motion of the Comptroller, it was Resolved, "that for the coming year, in addition to the amount paid by the Shell Fish Commission for the use of the boat during the previous years, the Commission shall also pay for the coal consumed.

Upon motion, the Board adjourned.

C. Hardy, Acting Secretary.

Secretary.
